

EPGS Heroics

Newsletter of The Eastern
Pennsylvania Gaming Society

January – February 2006

EPGS meets from 10:00 AM to 9:30 PM this Saturday, January 21st, in Oxford Valley Mall's Community Room. Subsequent meetings will be February 4th and 18th, March 4th, and the first and third Saturdays each month thereafter.

Newsletter News

With this issue, EPGS Heroics returns to bimonthly publication. And, your reluctant editor has dropped the anniversary gaming column. Hopefully this will give him time to write something more substantial each issue. Plus with four meetings between each issue, trends in "The Games We Played" section will be more apparent.

The Games We Played

This month there was a three-way tie for most played game between old stalwart Puerto Rico and newcomers Caylus and Twilight Struggle with six plays apiece. In fact Twilight Struggle is so new that it wasn't even available for our first meeting! Pity that the game appears to be unbalanced; the Soviet Union won the Cold War all six times. Other games played multiple times were Power Grid with three plays, and Axis and Allies Miniatures, Empire Builder, Odin's Ravens, Paydirt, Vinci and World of Warcraft with two plays apiece. Thanks to Jason Wagner, Steve Cameron and Alex Bove for helping compile this information.

Helped by seven varieties of Carcassonne played, Hans im Glück led the publisher list with 22 titles played.

I wasn't sure how to include Avalon Hill, Hasbro and Hasbro/Avalon games, so listed them separately.

It should also be mentioned that Rio Grande reprinted 51 different games played at EPGS in 2005.

Although many games don't garner many plays on their own, grouping them with other games using the same system reveals greater popularity.

The Card-Driven Wargame system games jumped from 24 plays in 2004 to 54! And at the first meeting of 2006 seven CDWs were played; a rate that sustained over the rest of the year would result in 168 CDW games being played.
