CLUB INFORMATION

The Eastern Pennsylvania Gaming Society (EPGS) is the largest board game / strategy game group in the Delaware Valley. The club was founded in 1991.

Meetings of EPGS are held in the Community Room of the Oxford Valley Mall.

The address for the Oxford Valley Mall is 2300 E. Lincoln Highway, Langhorne, PA.

It is located about two miles from Exit 3 of PA 295.

EPGS meetings are held on the first and third Saturdays of every month unless otherwise announced.

Point your web browser to www.simon.com/mall/oxford-valley-mall for information about the mall's operating hours.

GREETINGS FELLOW GAMERS

The Eastern Pennsylvania Gaming Society (EPGS) has been meeting in person since July 2021 since the start of the COVID-19 pandemic. See details regarding location and direction on the right.

Most of the mall's food vendors have reopened, and there are some new ones!

Starting with the December 4, 2021 meeting, the club will begin collecting dues for 2022. Dues will remain at the level they were before the pandemic. See below for the dues structure.

Option One

$60 payment for the entire calendar year, due by the end of January of the calendar year.

Option Two

$35 payment for the first half of the calendar year, due by the end of January of the calendar year.

$35 payment for the second half of the calendar year, due by the end of July of the calendar year.

Option Three

$7 per meeting due by the end of the meeting.

The first meeting of a new or lapsed member is free.

For further information about dues, including discounts for family members, contact either our club's President or Treasurer.
